

H-2017 INDIAN CHURCH. PUEBLO OF SANDIA, NEAR ALBUQUERQUE, NEW MEXICO.

COPR. FRED HARVEY

"PHOSTINT"

TRADE MARK REG. - U. S. PAT. OFF.
MADE ONLY BY DETROIT PUBLISHING CO.

4-
POST CARD

PLACE STAMP

HERE

The Indian Church at Sandia was built several hundred years ago by Spanish missionaries and services are still held there. The pueblo occupies a gentle rise from the bottom lands on the west bank of the Rio Grande. It may easily be seen as the train approaches the small station of Alameda, a short distance above Albuquerque. The population is about 150.

13985

THIS SPACE MAY BE USED FOR MESSAGE

PAID

THIS SPACE FOR THE ADDRESS